OFFICERS CHOSEN BY HOME ROOMS

Twenty Representatives
Added To Student
Council

This year the student council has introduced a new system of home rooms. This idea has proved to be helpful in getting the students better acquainted with each other and the teacher. Some home rooms have turned their session hour into a club hour and have chosen different club names. Others have used the period for the discussion of current topics, both foreign and home. Each room has chosen the following officers: President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Student Council Representative.

Senior Rooms

Junior Rooms

One Injured In Smash Up

Concussion of the brain, right leg badly injured, two teeth broken and lacerated face was the result of an accident Saturday night, September 28. These injuries occurred to Anna Casselberry when returning from Mt. Clemens with a friend.

After attempting to pass a car, while dropping back in line the driver hit the car in front. Miss Casselberry was thrown from the car and became unconscious. Her companion was not hurt and after Miss Casselberry was revived he drove home.

ELMER PINCH HITS FOR HENRY

Henry, my dear friend and colleague, fainted last Saturday when he read a newspaper article on football. After the strenuous work of writing three editorials he happened to glance at the paper and see the loyal and hardworking Ypsi team referred to as Munies. That was too much. His face got purple; his hair stood on end; his feet swelled so much that his shoe laces broke; his blood pressure tripled; and his collar button flew off.

He is convalescing.

One of the best ways of helping Henry get on his feet again is to just sit down and write him a note. Tell him how you hate the name of Munies; suggest other and better names; and finally, tell him what you expect to do about it.

Ten Debates Are Arranged

The debate question this year is: Resolved, that the several nations should make government monopolies of the manufacture and sale of all combat instruments of war.

The debate schedule follows:

Oct. 31, with Ecorse, there.
Nov. 7, with Plymouth, there.
Nov. 14, with Lincoln Park, here.
Nov. 21, with Dearborn, here.
Nov. 26, with River Rouge, there.
Dec. 5, with Ecorse, there.
Dec. 10, with Plymouth, there.
Dec. 12, with Lincoln Park, there.

Dec. 17, with Dearborn, there.
Dec. 19, with River Rouge, here.

Those who seem to have most chance of participating in these debates are Ulrich Gress, Betty Arnet, Dorothy Darragh, Louis Golden, Carol Sweet, Barry Alford and Seymour Gordon. These students have been working hard getting material from every possible source. The broad question has enabled them to uncover countless discussions of the topic. They are thoroughly satisfied with the schedule. All debates are to take place in the evening.

Two weeks ago the debaters met at Mr. Hill's home. A lot was accomplished between listening to Crime Clues and the Baer-Louis fight on the radio. They were fed peanuts, cocoa and cookies.

SERVICE EARNS FEED FOR BAND MEMBERS

Members of the Ypsilanti Community band will be given a supper by the I. O. O. F. Lodge, Wednesday, October 9 at 5:30 p. m.

The purpose of the supper is to show their appreciation for the services in the Memorial program last year. Mr. Fleuelling is responsible for this banquet and the dance which will follow.

BROWN, MENELY APPEAR FOR MUSICAL ASSEMBLY

An assembly featuring the Brown-Menely Duo is to be held in the auditorium Oct. 15. The popular pair performed last year at one of our assemblies, and they were met with such approval that a return engagement was unanimously requested by the students. These versatile musicians will entertain with selections played upon the piano, organ, chimes, and saxaphones. Many vocal numbers will be sung and one of the high lights of the program will be the imitation of the organ.

Encore For George Elias

One of the most tremendous ovations ever received by a speaker before the student body of the Ypsilanti High School, was accorded George Elias, feature of the Sept. 24 assembly. Mr. Elias spoke on "The Man Without a Country," a story of his personal experiences before becoming a citizen of the U. S. A.

From a humble beginning as a sheep herder, without nationality, he has become an American citizen, and has found a country which has played fairly with him.

He spoke interestingly of the refugees from Turkey in the world conflict, and gave many of us a new insight on the horrors of war.

Four years ago, when Mr. Elias appeared before our assembly, he told of his boyhood in the pastures of the Tigris-Euphrates valley. All of us who heard him then knew what we were to expect in his return engagement on Tuesday.

He is a man who is living proof of what can be done with a little will to win. Throughout the whole speech, even during the most poignant moments, he injected a contagious quality of humor which met with the approval of the student body.

Sophomores Welcomed To Senior Division

The Sophomores were officially welcomed to Ypsilanti High School at a large party given Sept. 27, in the school gymnasium. This was a lucky year for the Sophs since paddling was not allowed, but the great indoor sport of peanut rolling was continued at intervals throughout the evening. Some excellent peanut rollers were discovered, one of the best being Mr. Hill, sponsor of the Sophomore class.

All Sophomores wore some distinguishing mark. The boys wore crepe ties colored green or orange, and the girls wore oval hats tied under the chin with bands of crepe paper. The gym was decorated in the school colors of purple and gold.

Music for the party was furnished by the Silver Crescent Orchestra, (and the S. C. on the music racks did not mean Sophomore Class.)

During the intermission, punch and wafers were served, and as a grand finale, during the last dance, the decorations were torn down.

Succeeding the Ypsi Chat, established February 9th, 1896

Entered at the postoffice at Ypsilanti, Michigan, as second class matter. Acceptance for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917 Authorized September 20, 1921.

WE NEED ALL OF YOU

Every year at this time, the annual Community Fair is given in the Ypsilanti High School. This year the fair is being sponsored by the Future Farmers of America, with the cooperation of the Kiwanis Club, the Ypsilanti School Board, the local merchants and the Ypsi Sem.

The Future Farmers have charge of the exhibits, which are provided by the farmers of this vicinity and the local merchants. Several of the classes in the High School are also aiding in this project. The Kiwanis Club is to give a circus in the gym, and the Sem is providing the publicity. There are 3,000 copies of the paper printed to be circulated among the students, the towns people, and those in the rural districts.

All of the participants are going wholeheartedly into this work to make the Community Fair of 1935 bigger and better than any of its predecessors.

We promise you an all around good time when you all turn out for this great entertainment. Don't miss a moment of it; it's well worth while.

We wish to thank all of those who have lent their support to this undertaking, and invite everyone to come to the fair. Tell all of your friends, and attend on both nights, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 18 and 19.

WE DEPEND ON THEM

The most important trait that a person can have in life is the ability to follow a certain task through to its completion. This quality is shown by many of the future farmer boys who are responsible for the success of the fair.

Every boy in the Future Farmer organization has been assigned certain work to do for the event. They will succeed with this year's fair if their work is on a par with that done by the boys in other years.

The farm boys possess certain characteristics that many city boys lack and that are probably due to the training received from working on a farm. Certain duties that every country boy has develop responsibility.

These future farmers are a big asset to our school. Every boy, now that he has no tuition to pay, has a chance to get a good education. The school helps the boy and the boy helps the school. Such an arrangement shows progress.

HENRY IS ENRAGED

Students: Consider this matter very deliberately for just a brief period of your free time: When a classmate is trying to work the combination of his lock, and he receives a rap in the ribs, someone's misplaced foot below the belt, or some other form of punishment from just a friend merely trying to say hello, or making his or her presence known, does this not give rise to, aggravate, or produce heated portions of the anatomy, or in other words, does this not burn you up, I ask you? Put yourself in his place, and we will see if the matter cannot be remedied.

Hannah's Column

Dear Helpful Hannah:

I graduated last year but I too have problems. I belong to an orchestra, and in pursuing my job must be away from my one and only. I have received reports that she is going around with a truck driver on the sly. My heart is breaking. What shall I do?

Country Boy.

Dear Country Boy:

I would suggest coming back and trying for a job in a fish market which may not pay as much but provides better opportunities.

H. H.

Dear Helpful Hannah:

I am in distress: I am a poor girl of 17 and all I can do is dream of this boy who is a honey! If by chance you would like to know his name, it is Bobby Ely. He is so bashful he will not ask me for a date. What shall I do to make him come around?

A Batty Girl

Dear Batty Girl:

Why don't you pretend it is Leap Year and ask him for a date?

H. H.

Dear Helpful Hannah:

I am a very sad senior girl. I made a bet with a friend of mine, that a certain senior boy would ask me to the Soph. Reception. For a whole week before hand I went up to him every day in the hall and told him what a good dancer I am, but he didn't ask me. Please tell me what I can do.

Belle of the Nineties.

Dear Bell of the Nineties:

I would suggest that you change your technique and tell him what a marvelous dancer he is. It may work.

High Lights

Mr. Hill's dancing. (Incidentally he tired three teachers out by dancing in the first fifteen minutes of the evening.)

Helen Holleran's new black silk dress with the red plaid collar and cuffs.

Mr. Sinden's famous saying, "Never stick your nose into a test tube full of chemicals, for be it over so homely there's no face like your own."

Mr. McLaughlin's new rule, "Anyone can swear at anyone in the sem office without expecting a fight." (We wonder if it is being done?)

The new High School constitution which is being written by a committee from the student council.

WANT ADS

Wanted—A position for Mr. Best on the football team. (We think he could talk our opponents out of a touchdown.)

Wanted—A good handwriting detective in the sem office.

Wanted—A better Junior hockey team. (A doleful junior.)

Wanted by Mr. Schaeffer, a system to keep the track team from running around nights.

Stenogs Hold Club Meeting

The second meeting of the Secretarial Club was held in the form of an educational meeting on Wednesday, October 2, third hour, in room 305. Twelve members were present and two were absent.

Reports were given by several members of the club. Mary Grace Moore spoke on, "With Persistence You Can Succeed." Leona Hubbell told about, "Charles Dickens as a Short Hand Writer." Ruth McGraw gave "The Requirements of an Expert Secretary."

Madeline Lobbestael was appointed to see if the club might have a booth at the Community Fair.

A weenie roast was discussed. It was decided to have one next Wednesday October 9, to be given at Madeline Lobbestael's home. The meeting was adjourned.

Dick Bisbee and Noreen Carr weren't together at the Sophomore Reception, Friday night, but didn't we see them walking together down the corridor this morning?

Miss Margaret Duffy is expecting her correspondence friend over the week end. (We will be watching for him.)

Miss Aileen Harris returned to school Monday morning after being seriously ill the previous week.

The editor of The Ypsi Sem was absent Monday. She spent the day taking cough syrup.

Miss Parish fell down the steps of her home Tuesday morning. She caught herself with her right leg thus saving herself from any serious injuries.

We Get a Criticism

The always frank alumnus, Hugh Dinsdale, said he didn't think our 1935 Sem was anything so extra good. Now my public, what do you think? Will you kindly drop your opinions into the "Chat" box in front of the Sem office. They will be greatly appreciated.

Future Farmers Present Annual Fair

Exhibits To Be Shown In Hall

Exhibitions of crops, vegetables, flowers, fruit and canned goods will be shown in the halls of the High School Oct. 18 and 19, during the Community Fair. Poultry and rabbits will be exhibited in the activity room and livestock will be shown in a tent in the parking lot.

Miss Alexander and Mr. Lewis were appointed by Mr. Wiltse to allot space for the exhibits of the different teachers. Last year some of the teachers could not find space to display the work of their pupils.

Prizes, ranging from a dollar to fifteen cents will be given for the best specimens and everyone is welcome to enter their products.

The livestock show is new this year, and will include heifers, calves, pigs, sheep, ponies and goats. A fee of fifteen cents is being charged for care and feed; however everyone is asked to provide his own feed if possible. A small fee of ten cents will also be charged for poultry and rabbits to provide for feed. This fee is for all entries made by one person and not for each animal.

The novelty event is in the miscellaneous section where prizes will be given for freak vegetables and fruits, and the largest vegetable, fruit, root, or potato and many others all of which are listed on page 7.

There is no admission charge.

YHS

MANY EXPERT JUDGES HAVE BEEN SECURED

The judges for the exhibits at the Community Fair, to be held Friday and Saturday October 18 and 19, have been appointed. H. S. Osler, Washtenaw County Agent of the Future Farmers Association, will judge the livestock exhibits. E. I. Besemer and George Allen, agricultural teachers at Belleville and Milan High Schools, respectively, will judge the crop and vegetable exhibits. George Langsburg, agricultural teacher at Plymouth and F. Gettle of Saline will award the prizes for the best fruit and any miscellaneous exhibits. Miss Caroline Lewis and Miss Pauline Linck will judge canned goods. Stanley Norton will judge the flower exhibits. Owing to some difficulty in judging last year it was not decided whether Fred Simpson would judge the rabbit or poultry exhibits or both. The three judges for the hobby exhibits are Fred Greenstreet, Dr. H. Barss and Vincent L. Arnet. Supt. Chapelle, Mayor Burrell, Chief of Police Ralph Southard and Paul Ungrodt, secretary of Chamber of Commerce, will pick the prize hog callers.

BIG DANCE OF SEASON WILL BE GIVEN DURING FUTURE FARMERS' FAIR

Hear Ye! Hear Ye! Hear Ye! A BIG Dance, what I mean. The Future Farmers and the Student Council have combined forces to give us one of the biggest, peppiest dances of the year. The big event takes place Oct. 19, 8:30 to 12:00 as a special feature of our Community Fair and admission is only fifty cents a couple, twenty-five cents apiece. What a bargain! What a dance! What a Fair. Incidentally the dance is "stag or drag" so just follow the crowd to the Ypsi High Gymnasium along about 8:30, for one grand time.

YHS

Many Prizes Feature F.F.A. Community Fair

Tickets received when making a purchase at all booths in the halls will be the basis of the drawing Saturday night.

When a purchase is made at a booth there will be a ticket given the purchaser. On each end of the ticket there will be a number. The tickets will be torn in two and part will be given to the purchaser and the other part will be kept at the booth.

In the auditorium there will be a big barrel and all the duplicate tickets that were kept by the students at the booths will be put into this barrel.

After they are mixed up quite well, Mr. Wiltse, or someone equally important, will draw out the tickets.

There will be forty or more donations given away which the boys of the F. F. A. have donated for the purpose. The donations will be such things as rabbits, chickens, gallon jugs of cider and many other things that will be received if you hold the other part of the ticket.

YHS

Freshmen Lead In Ticket Sale

The annual sale of budget tickets has given a fine showing. Up to the present time in the senior division, the mighty seniors lead with 48 budget tickets, the sophomores second with 45 and the juniors last but not least, with 43, the total sale being 137.

In the junior division, the ninth grade leads with 58, the eighth grade has 42, and the seventh grade 39. The ninth grade has practically sold Miss Murray out, defeating all other classes with a total of 58 tickets.

Hill Presents Pep Assembly

Under the sponsorship of Life-buoy soap, Mr. Charles Hill, English instructor, was presented as inquiring reporter in the assembly of Oct. 3. The program was broadcast from our station WHY over station WMBC out of Detroit. Following the first advertisement of the school-girl complexion soap, the band played two selections. Mr. Hill led the practice singing of the school song, which was followed by a 'fight-locomotive.' Ulrich Gress was then introduced and made an appeal to the pupils to change the name of the football team.

Mr. Hill at this point introduced Mr. Foy, who brought 22 players to the stage and gave a demonstration of the technicalities of football.

After this the cheer leaders led the student body in a 'yea team.'

Mr. Schaffer was then interviewed, and he gave the possibilities and qualifications of track.

Once again the students were led in an 'Y-P-S-I-L-A-N-T-I.'

Mr. Hill then gave his rendition in modern style of "Hail, Hall, the Gang's All Here," and "Ypsi Will Shine Tonight," followed by the students. In general we were all kept in stitches.

Plays To Feature On Fair Program

Three one act plays will be given by the Drama Club, Friday, Oct. 18, in the Kindergarten room at the community fair. The purpose of the plays is to raise funds for a make-up kit and to further the interest in dramatics. A committee was appointed to take charge of the directing, securing participants, and the selection of the play. They are as follows: Elizabeth Jellis, chairman, Jo Ann Bigger, Helen Katon, and Ellis Bird. Virginia Palmer and Margaret Duffy were appointed to meet with other concessions to decide upon a suitable price for the plays. The various committees are as follows: Advertising, Marjorie Delaforce and Merton Teare; program, Virginia Tyler, Mary Louise Lamb and Jane Thoms; property, Edwin Morhous.

At the meeting it was decided that the constitution of the club would be revised in accordance with the price system. Peggy Spencer and Betty Backus were appointed to do this. Several plays were suggested but nothing definite was decided.

KIWANIS CLUB PLANS PARADE

Extensive Arrangements Made For Friday Activities

The Kiwanis Club is going to give a real parade and everything that contributes to a circus, Friday, October 18, under the leadership of Clarence Loessel, chairman of the circus committee. There will be no charge for admission.

At seven thirty the Ypsilanti High School and the Lincoln Consolidated School bands will lead the parade. They will parade the downtown streets and come to a stop at the Ypsilanti High School Gymnasium, where the circus will be held.

Plans Being Made

The temporary plans of the Kiwanians include a group of acrobats and tumblers from Jackson; a gentleman who was in a circus all summer, in an intricate ladder act; stunts on a parallel bar; two girls, who will give bicycle acts; a stair dance; three girls in roller skating tricks; a magician from Detroit; a group of girls who will carry canes and dance a unique cane dance; and a local performer, Jack Flagg, who will give a cannon ball act.

Rural students are especially invited to come to the first performance at 7:30. They will be given tickets by their teachers. The second performance is at 9:30 p. m.

Merchants Cooperate

The Kiwanians are also sponsoring a window display for the rural schools. As soon as a rural school sends the entry blank given it, it will be assigned to a certain store window for the display.

Anything may be used to make the display more interesting with the exception of animals. There will be three classes under which to enter the exhibits; first, originality; second, artisticness; and third, educational value. There are three prizes in each division. They will consist of articles of usefulness for the school, such as books, pictures, etc.

Schools To Exhibit

Schools may start putting their exhibits in the windows Friday afternoon and must be completed by six o'clock that evening. It is requested that the exhibit window be covered while the displays are being arranged. This will give the public a complete surprise. Exhibits are to be left in the windows until Monday morning.

Ypsi Honored As Chapter I

The Future Farmers Chapter 1 of Ypsilanti High School was organized in the year of 1929 under the advisement of Mr. Charles A. Osgood. This club is composed of boys who are taking the agricultural course offered by the High School. The boys must also carry on a home project to put into practice the methods they learn. The chapter is the first to be granted a charter in this locality. One purpose of the club is to teach the boys agricultural leadership in rural communities.

The club competes in athletic competition with the neighboring Future Farmers chapters. Each year the neighboring chapters come to the Washtenaw County Fair to compete in the field crops, livestock, and poultry. The chapter that has the three highest judges in any one of the three chapters of judging is presented with a cup, which it keeps for one year. The first club winning a cup three times in succession keeps the cup. Last year this chapter won the crops and livestock judging cups. This chapter is holding its sixth annual Community Fair and attempting to make it a bigger and better event.

A livestock competition and an enlargement on the poultry department will be added to the premium list of last year. Each year the club visits the Flower Show held annually in Detroit, also the State College and exhibits in Lansing. Later in the year a trip is taken to Jack Minor's Bird Sanctuary in Canada and lastly a camping trip to some point of interest. This year the trip was to Otsego Lake and Sault Ste. Marie in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan. During the summer months a home project tour is taken through neighboring counties.

WATCH DOG GUARDS F. F. A. MEETINGS

The duty of the "watch dog" of the Future Farmers Association is to guard the door while his fellow members are receiving the initiates. All he has to do is to stand at the door and keep those who expect to become members in the future, or those who are just inquisitive, from learning any secrets to pass on to their friends. He is on duty only during initiation ceremonies. Harvey Briggs has the distinguished honor of being "watch dog" for the one and only Future Farmers Association of the Ypsilanti High School.

All cups have to be won three years before they become the property of the school. The Poultry Cup is donated by the Manchester Rotary Club while the Livestock cup is given by the Milan Chamber of Commerce.

Hobbies at the Fair

Archie Camp and Donald Brice will be in charge of the hobby department at the community fair October 18th and 19th. All boys and girls with hobbies are eligible to participate in the hobby contest. This opportunity should be taken by everyone, as it is an excellent chance to exhibit your favorite avocation.

Last year taxidermy, painting, marksmanship and photography were among the hobbies shown, collections of stamps, coins, Indian relics and insects were also exhibited. This department of the fair was new last year, and created considerable interest. An exhibit of marksmanship and riflery won first prize last year.

Four prizes will be given in this division this year. Anyone wishing to enter his favorite hobby in the contest, should bring his entry to the fair on or before Friday, October 18, at 2:30 p. m.

State Paying Rural Tuition

Thanks to the Thatcher-Saur act recently put into effect, rural students no longer have to pay tuition if they are in grade nine to twelve. Tuition was and is $40 for grades 7-8, and $60 for High School. Now because the State is paying this, many more pupils from rural districts are attending our school.

This is indeed a valuable provision, for many students from rural districts used to quit school after the eighth grade. A democratic act like this was sorely needed and it is gratifying that our state has produced it.

SUBSTITUTE ARRIVES

Mrs. Laura Kerbyson took Mrs. Bulkeley's place in teaching seventh and ninth grade English, Monday, Sept. 3 and Tuesday, Oct. 1. Two years ago Mrs. Kerbyson did a great deal of substituting for Mrs. Sims, also teaching seventh and ninth grade English.

Mrs. Sims is no longer teaching here but she still lives in Ypsilanti. Mrs. Bulkeley was absent on account of business matters.

Biology Class Plans Exhibit

The Biology classes are planning an exhibit for the Community Fair. They will use the large case at the back of the Biology room to house their exhibits. The tables will also be used. The exhibits will be of wild life, stuffed animals and the insect collections the students made. Charles Payne and Rockwood Skocdopole are in charge of the exhibit.

Support Given By Merchants

Up to the time the Sem goes to press the following merchants and organizations had contributed toward the cash necessary for the premiums given to prize-winning exhibitors:

Board of Commerce, Rotary Club, Kiwanis Club, Detroit Edison Company, Ypsilanti Gas Office, American Legion, Ypsilanti Farm Bureau, S. S. Kresge Company, Lewis Creamery, E. A. Mellenkamp, Peters Creamery, Kroger Company, Ypsilanti Savings Bank, Ypsilanti National Bank, Ypsilanti Daily Press, E. J. Doran, E. G. Wiedman, Joseph H. Thompson, D. M. Silkworth, Warner Dairy, Weinmann-Matthews, Shaefer Hardware Company, Condon's Hardware, and Nulan Hardware.

The list of the premiums will be found elsewhere in this paper.

Among the people contributing produce such as apples, potatoes, rabbits, chickens, ducks, etc., for the free drawing of forty prizes to be held Saturday night are as follows: Walter Wiard, Everett Wiard, Frank Wiard, Fred Simons, and agriculture boys.

Flowers are furnished and donated by the River Street Greenhouse, Norton's Greenhouse, and Durant's Flower Shop.

The Fox Tent and Awning Company has kindly consented to furnish a tent to house the livestock.

Second Victory For Ypsi Team

After both teams had gone scoreless for three quarters, Ypsi gained two points by blocking a punt which went into Lincoln Park's end zone. Lincoln Park recovered for a safety.

Near the close of the game Capt. Wales kicked a field goal from the fifteen-yard line. This gained another three points.

In the last quarter Heinel of Lincoln Park recovered a fumble and ran 91 yards for what looked to be a touchdown but the ball was called back and a penalty was drawn by Lincoln Park for clipping. The penalty put the ball on Lincoln Park's 25 yard line.

Ypsi lacked the pep which it displayed under the lights at Jackson. Both teams fumbled the ball frequently.

Freshman Hurt In Hockey Game

Monday night, Sept. 30, at 3:45 the first hockey game was played, the classes being Freshmen vs. Juniors. The Freshmen had at least two full teams out. Juniors only had six players and they played an excellent game of hockey. The Freshies also played a good game considering that they are just Freshmen. In the first quarter Woolsey made the first goal for the Freshmen making the score one to nothing. Nothing happened in the second quarter, but in the third quarter Briskorn, another Freshie, made a goal making the score two to nothing. Finally in the last quarter Jellis made a goal for the Juniors, making the score at the end of the game two to one.

During the course of the last quarter Sanderson, a Freshman, was hit in the eye with a ball and the result was a beautiful black eye.

Two Injured In Jackson Game

Two injuries occurred in the Ypsi team at the Jackson-Ypsi game Friday night, Sept. 20. Ed Thayer, halfback, was kicked in the back in the second quarter but in spite of this stayed in the game to help Ypsi along to stop Jackson.

The second injury of the evening was received by Bernard Hughes. In the last quarter "Barney" was hurt in the same way as Thayer. Coach Foy took him out however, and the game went on. It is reported that after the game, Barney's sole views on the subject were "Huh."

The Power Behind The Team

Imagine a veteran backfield; one slated by all sports writers, to go places in their respective league; imagine a green young line in front of them; would this backfield live up to its expectations? No, it would not, as a line of some experience and size is very important in a team's success. The backs would not stand out if it were not for the work of the line. The line is not noticed as much as the half backs who make the long gains or touchdowns, but it is the line that makes possible these runs. It is the line that opens holes for the back to shoot through, and that blocks opposing tacklers. This is only a small portion of its duties in the game. On defense it must be able to take it, and still hold its position on the line. Two, and sometimes three men work on one tackle to get a hole open for their backs. A lineman must meet the charge of the opposing linemen, and stop the opposition if at all possible.

The line really takes the punishment at all times, both on defense and offense, but it receives very little attention from the spectators, although it is really responsible for a team's success.

At the next game watch the lines work, and see for yourself if this is not correct.

Two Who Know.

Cheer Leaders Display Ginger

What pep! What vitality! Our cheer leaders must read the "Grape Nut" ads. With little practise, but much ambition the cheer leaders have turned out and really shown us a good piece of work.

In case you don't know who they are here is a list. The one and only boy, Bruce Green, is assisted by five rare beauties, Elizabeth Jellis, Gervaise Osburn, Helen Batterson, Mildred Harris and Jo Ann Brigger.

You all had a vivid demonstration at the assembly Thurs, Oct. 3. If we always have that much spirit leading us, and show as much spirit ourselves what a grand job of cheering we can do at the games.

Ypsi High Fleetfoots Plan On Full Season

Here is the corrected cross country schedule: October 4, Dearborn and Plymouth; at Dearborn. Oct. 10, Normal Freshmen; at Ypsi. Oct. 18, Wayne and Dearborn; at Ypsi. Oct. 24, River Rouge; at Ypsi. Oct. 26, Regional; place unsettled. Nov. 2, State meet; place unsettled. Nov. 8, League meet; at Plymouth.

Due to conflictions of other meets the schedule had to be rearranged. There are two triangular meets, and the boys on the cross country team say they will do their best to win most of them.

Gunn Chambers who has been out of practice because of a broken foot, will be in the lineup possibly for the first meet.

Latin Society Plans Horace Celebration

A banquet celebrating the bimilennium of the poet Horace is to be given December 8 by the Latin Club. This was decided at their first meeting which was held Wednesday Oct. 2, third hour in the lunch room.

Election of officers was held at this time. Those elected were Virginia Jaroh, president; Florence Climansmith, vice president; Marie Brown, secretary and Charlotte Mourer, treasurer.

The plans for the following year were discussed. They are to have outside speakers come to speak in their future meetings. Films from the University of Michigan are to be shown from time to time.

Sept. 30—Freshmen vs. Juniors.
Oct. 3—Seniors vs. Sophomores.

Everard Carries Ball For Six Points, Wales Completes

Everard started the trip to a touch down in the second quarter of the football game with Dearborn, last Friday at Dearborn, when he returned a punt to Dearborn's 15 yard line. Ypsi lost the ball on a fumble. Again Dearborn punted and Everard made another attempt to carry the ball through Dearborn's players. This time he was successful. Wales place kicked for the extra point.

Ypsi outplayed Dearborn throughout the entire game. Dearborn made only two first downs to the seven made by Ypsi. Everard and Wales completed several forward passes.

In the first quarter Wales attempted a field goal but the ball hit the cross bar and bounded back.

The team showed a marked improvement over last week in handling the ball. The local team should be back in their stride when they battle with Ecorse on Oct. 11 and Wayne on Oct. 18.

The Girls Athletic Club re-organized Sept. 23 and the following were elected as officers: Margaret Holzhauser president; Margaret Duffy, vice president; Virginia Tyler, secretary; and Evelyn Harner, treasurer. The purpose of the G. A. C. is to interest the girls of the school in athletic affairs. New girls are to hike ten miles before being eligible for membership.

The second game of the hockey tournament was played today on Frog Island between the Seniors and the Sophomores. The game turned out to be quite rough, but interesting nevertheless. The score was a close one, 4 to 3 in favor of the Seniors.

Margot Holzhauer and Mary Grady were the only two persons on either team to make the goals, Margot for the Seniors and Mary for the Sophomores.

Barbara Neary and Pearl Seaton were both accidentally injured, Barbara receiving her injury on the knee and Pearl on her right ankle. Both of them were hurt quite badly, and they were hurt when the other team fouled.

Columbus, Fire Prevention, Are Topics For Home Room

During home room periods on Oct. 8, the classes will discuss Columbus Day, Fire Prevention, or both, if time allows. In the Columbus Day discussion the topics to be considered are Columbus as a boy, and the return of Columbus.

Fire Prevention is to concern mainly what to do in case of burning curtains or draperies, burning clothing, and the possible suffocation resulting from smoke. Beware of fire hazards in your home and school, will be the issue. If you find old rubbish or anything that might possibly cause spontaneous combustion, rid the place of this threatening danger, just to play safe, if not for personal pride alone.

National Youth Administration

The National Youth Administration, realizing that every young person should have a chance for an education, has provided for needy high school and college students. Ypsilanti High School, which is allowed 7% of its enrollment, may aid 14 students. It has had but one application to date.

A student must be between the ages of 16 and 25 years; be on the public relief roll; have a good character. Students may receive $6 a month for text books, car fare, lunches or other essentials.

The services which the students render for the money are not to exceed 10 hours a week or three hours a day. They are given proper supervised work or should carry a full load of school studies. The work may consist of clerical work, library work, checking of exercises or minor janitorial duties.

The superintendent and principal of the school have responsibility of deciding whether a student is deserving of such relief. Great care must be taken in this selection.

This administration is a new organization. Mr. William Haber is the general director. This type of relief started in the fall term of 1935, and ends in the spring term not later than June 30, 1936.

Students who are financially unable to go to school are urged to take advantage of this opportunity.

PHYSICS FIELD TRIPS PLANNED BY SINDEN

The physics class, conducted by Mr. Wilfred Sinden, is now well under way in its application of the laws of energy and matter.

Most recently studied was Archimedes' Principle. This deals with the buoyant force of water. Pascal's Law, also dealing with the forces of water, has also been studied.

Three experiments have been conducted in the laboratory on accurate weighing and measuring. The class has learned to use the Vernier caliper, which measures to the tenth of a millimeter and has also mastered the metric system.

Mr. Sinden has planned several trips for the class to take at intervals throughout the school year, so they might see the principles of physics being used. Among the places to be visited are Greenfield Village, the local Golde Patent plant, to learn how metals are plated; at Superior Dam the class will learn how water power is used for generating electricity. Some local laboratory will also be visited; at the city gas plant will be found how the destructive distillation of coal is put to advantage; and a recognized manufacturing plant will probably be visited.

Westerly Wind Noted

Fellow Students: We have another member in our school, from the windy city of Ann Arbor. We hope that if we ever debate with Ann Arbor we will find the debaters are not so vociferous, or all our fond hopes for winning would be sadly depleted.

George Cobb is the new member, and with his own little larynx he makes a very loud noise at the football games, so more power to you, George.

(Has anybody here seen Rover?) "Jake."

Editor's Note: This is an invitation to "Windy" to keep his promise to clean up on the Sem office.

SEEN HEARD AND TOLD

Dick Harner is again looking around for a new sensation. (What's the matter, Joyce?)

Bill Coleman and Joyce Fleming celebrated their anniversary Sept. 30. Going steady one whole year. (More power to you, the first year is always the hardest.)

JoAnn Bigger creates quite a large scene when she falls off her bicycle.

There is a rumor around school that the new pupil, Andy Lenington, is throwing a big party this Saturday night Oct. 5.

By the printing of her name in the Sem, Helen Katon will lose a bet.
